

Division for Learning Disabilities Federal Policy- Making Award

Recognizes a policy-maker who has made significant contributions to policies promoting services for students with learning disabilities. As many as three awards can be given annually. Applications are due January 15th of each year.

The nominee must have served in or worked with the U.S. Congress for at least one term or worked in a Federal Government Agency for at least four years.

The nominee shall have demonstrated advocacy, sponsorship, and support of legislation that improves the welfare and education of students with learning disabilities.

Evidence of the candidate 's accomplishments shall be submitted along with the nominee 's name and contact information, as well as contact information about the nominator.

Send your nomination to:

Susan Simmons
Membership Services
CEC
1110 N.Glebe Road
Suite 300
Arlington,VA 22201